COLOR FROM THE ALPS OF AMERICA

(No. 22 in a series of 24 scenes of Central Utah)

The gothic spires of the L. D. S. Church Tabernacle at the intersectian of First South and University Aveune in Prova, Utah, is typical af early Mormon architecture. The structure, begun in 1882 and completed in 1898, is the scene af Church and civic meetings today.

(PHOTO BY A. A. SWENSON)

PRESS PUBLISHING COMPANY • 723 COLUMBIA LANE • PROVO, UTAH

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

22